If the application for funding as provided for herein is approved by the PHCDC Board of Directors, the Applicant Organization covenants and agrees to undertake the following:

- (a) to maintain all original documentation pertaining to the project, program or community event for which funding has been applied for including all financial statements, invoices and receipts and to have these documents made available for inspection or examination upon request by officials on behalf of the PHCDC at any time during normal business hours;
- (b) to utilize the funding received only for purposes identified herein and not for any other project or activity without the express written consent of the PHCDC Board of Directors;
- (c) to return immediately to the PHCDC, any unused funds not utilized for the purposes of the project, program or community event as identified herein. Further, in the event the final costs associated with the project, program or community event are lower than the costs originally projected, the amount of eligible funding will be adjusted to reflect the lower cost and will be considered an overpayment. Under such circumstances, the Applicant Organization shall within fourteen (14) days following completion of the project, program or community event be required to refund to the PHCDC such funds attributable to the overpayment;
- (d) to complete, as and when requested by the PHCDC, a Follow Up Report in a form prescribed by the PHCDC verifying the final costs incurred with respect to delivery of the project, program or community event; and
- (e) to authorize the PHCDC to publish for use in conjunction with the preparation of its audited financial statements and annual report, reporting to its membership and to the public, the name of your organization, a description of the project, program or community event and the amount of funding received from the PHCDC. The Applicant Organization hereby acknowledges and agrees that this shall constitute proper and sufficient authority and consent for the release of the said information under applicable federal and provincial privacy legislation including, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (Canada).

In the event the application for funding is approved and the Applicant Organization fails to comply with the conditions as referenced above, all funds received by the Applicant Organization pursuant to this application shall immediately become payable by the Applicant Organization to the PHCDC and the PHCDC may, as its option, proceed with the exercise of any or all of the following remedies:

- (a) the PHCDC may cancel or suspend any further payments to the Applicant Organization with respect to the project, program or community event;
- (b) the PHCDC may proceed with the enforcement of any legal proceedings against the Applicant Organization to enforce repayment of all monies advanced to the Applicant Organization and owing to the PHCDC as a result of the Applicant Organization's failure to comply with the terms and conditions as prescribed herein. Further, any Applicant Organization that violates the terms and conditions as prescribed herein or fails to make repayment of any monies owing to the PHCDC shall be ineligible from receiving any further funding from the PHCDC with respect to any other project, program or community event until such time as the total amounts owing have been repaid in full to the PHCDC; and
- (c) the PHCDC may proceed with the exercise of any other rights or remedies it may have in law against the Application Organization.

DECLARATION

On behalf of the Applicant Organization, we hereby represent, warrant and certify the following:

- (a) That the information contained in this application reflects an accurate description of the estimated costs associated with the related project, program or community event;
- (b) That the information contained in this application is true and correct;
- (c) That on behalf of the Application Organization, we agree to the terms and conditions as prescribed herein and agree to be bound by such terms and conditions with respect to receipt of all funding received from the PHCDC; and
- (d) That we hereby authorize any duly appointed representatives of PHCDC to obtain from and share with such persons or organizations, public or private, any information necessary to complete their assessment of the project, program or community event and the request for funding as outlined herein.
